

Crafting A Future

BY CAROLYN STEEVES

COMMUNITY SCHOOL OF THE ARTS PLAYS ON

Forty years ago, Henry Bridges gathered 15 pianos and four piano teachers in the basement of Charlotte's First Presbyterian Church, and the Community School of the Arts was born. In those four decades, the school has gone from 20 students to nearly 2,000. However, its mission to provide quality arts education to all students remains unwavering. >